The Black Crowes

A song ease your lonely, let my words take your hand
Let me kiss your rose pedals for you and golden van
Let me point out the birds that fly only for you
And I will do anything that you want me to

Evergreen, evergreen, prettiest thing I'd ever seen
Come and steer away with me by the moonlight
Evergreen, evergreen, prettiest thing I'd ever seen
Come and steer away with me by the moonlight

Come and play in my garden, come and dance in my rain
Come make love in the sunshine, come let's share our pain
Come fly through this darkness to be right by my side
And let's walk right through the door just to see what's inside

Evergreen, evergreen, prettiest thing I'd ever seen
Come and steer away with me by the moonlight
Evergreen, evergreen, prettiest thing I'd ever seen
Come and steer away with me by the moonlight

Show me the way
With the words that you say
With the light of love
In the light of your love

Evergreen, evergreen, prettiest thing I'd ever seen
Come and steer away with me by the moonlight
Evergreen, evergreen, prettiest thing I'd ever seen
Come and steer away with me by the moonlight

Evergreen, evergreen
Evergreen, evergreen
Evergreen, evergreen
Evergreen, evergreen
