

Stygiophobic

The Black Dahlia Murder

Is your very existence shackled by an irrational fear of Hell?
Terrified of suicide but desiring death as well?

Can't they see there are consequences when will they ever learn

Every night seeing dead faces of the friends and family burn
No one will be saved

To the will of God enslaved, will I ever awake?
I pray the lord, my feeble soul to take

Can't they see there are consequences for every push there's a pull?

Each life a test impossible to secure one's seat in hell
Can't they see there are consequences when will they ever learn

Every night seeing dead faces of friends and family burn
No one will be saved
