

I Know Your Ways

The Black Heart Procession

rely was down time when you meet the end was frozen yet taught as you came if one was and the others not like you so the reason is to rely on that one cause i know your ways and i know what you'll say and i know how you think that i'll always run back when it all falls away and comes back to me and you it always comes back to me and you down there what will they find it's the way that the light all decays
