

The One Who Has Disappeared

The Black Heart Procession

I am the one who has disappeared
And I'll reap my rewards
When you look through me
I know I'm the one who has disappeared
When i write my name no words appear
And in your heart I will appear
And when it's my turn I turn away
I am the one who has disappeared
This one's for forgiveness so they say
I'm that one
I am the one
Who has no name
I have no name
And I am the one who has disappeared
The way you look through me
I know I'm the one
Who has disappeared
