

Oceans and Streams

The Black Keys

With guilt that no man should carry
Heavy enough for me to get buried
I feel death on the road tonight
It's got me to where I wanna run and hide

Oh I used to dream of oceans and streams
Flowing and growing strong
Where have all
Those days gone

These days I'm so slow
All these thoughts and no where to go
My aim used to be so true
And my world had a place in it just for you

Oh I used to dream of oceans and streams
Flowing and growing strong
Where have all
Those days gone

Excuse me I gotta go
Can't stand to be here anymore, no
I'm sick and I gotta go to bed
If I stay here I'm better off dead

Oh I used to dream of oceans and streams
Flowing and growing strong
Where have all
Those days gone
