

Headful of Stars

The Black Sorrows

I went down
Way down below
To a joint that ain't on the map
As far as I know
There was a beast
Asleep at the gate
With a note round it's neck sayin'
Who do you love to hate

People shakin' their bodies until they drop
Someone tell me when this is gonna stop
Lights flashin' and the ceiling screams
I'm wakin' up in the palace of dreams
I'm wakin' up in the palace of dreams

I fell through
One of the cracks
With a headful of stars
And a voice warnin' cover your tracks
Up on stage
Bathed in gold
Was the goddess of grief
With a tale that just had to be told

Night's crashin' and it tastes like sin
There ain't a sister that can't get in
Lights flashin' and the ceiling screams
