

That's What I Get for Lovin' You

The Black Sorrows

Well, I'm standin' at the station
But there's nothin' for me here
Seems like every time I leave you
I just can't make it clear
You don't know what you put me through
That's what I get for lovin' you

When I feel my arms around you
And I hunger for your kiss
I'm much too weak to face it
But I'm not the one you'll miss
Never knowin' who you're runnin' to
That's what I get for lovin' you

All the stars are in the heavens
As lovers glide on by
We'll never be together
Don't know the reason why
The clock is tickin' louder
That look is in your eyes
This room is gettin' darker
Too late I realise
Not a single word you say is true
That's what I get for lovin' you
