

Another complaint
It's another I'll guess
Another conviction
Is standing on glass
And now just go for it
Play with me
Tomorrow you'll see
It doesn't make sense
That I'm having a plan
I'm choosing a fiction
That is taking a bath
And now just go for it
Play with me
Tomorrow you'll bleed
Now you're playing someone else
In the places where I've been
In and out I'm someone else
A thought is dragging me
I'll guess I'm inbetween
I cannot move
the sweat is pouring from my suit
I put on my skin
The devil came to let me in
And all that I despise
Is sold to get me through
But you're here to close my eyes
Now you're playing someone else
In the places where I've been
In and out I'm someone else
A thought that's dragging me
I'll guess I'm inbetween
