

Waiting under ground
So dark it seems
I can't stop breathing
Waiting under ground
My eyes are closed
but my heart's still beating my whole sleeping seeds is straight to the stream beneath excuses unexplained into the day the more I quest
I'm only waiting under ground
So dark it seems
I can't stop grieving Waiting under ground
my mind is blind
my heart's still steaming It's a fast plane to this drag I think I shaped a million faces sonically you are in my head the more I stick you are fading away

I don't expect a perfect grave crackin' up concrete illusions sonically you are here to stay the more I scream the more i'm waiting under ground
so dark it seems
but I can't stop breathing Waiting under ground
but my heart is still beating I'm waiting for you
I'm waiting for you ...
