

So Long Goodbye

The Blackmail

Can't you see
Emptiness has failed like a failure in my head
Can't you see
There's always someone else who will try to understand
Can't you see
That everything is replaced here in my head

I'm grieving
I found out how to prove it
You can shout out what you're feeling
But I don't know how to use it
I told you that I have to feel safe
So why don't you get off my way
In and out you're leaking
