

The Mentalist

The Blackmail

enemies they stick into my head they follow my dumb feet I'm doomed to be bad recover me and mess with the darkest spell just roll down the drain and despite everything that you tell and I'm leading all that I have to your head yeah, I'm leading all that I have to your head clarity is clearing my sight jump over the fence and rush through the night my restless feet

I know they won't stop turn over too late but I know that we both will be saved

and I'm leading all that I have to your head yes, I'm leading all that I have to your head
