

Carry Me Higher

The Blessed Madonna

I'm gon' be there right next to you
I'm gon' be there right next to you
I'm gon' be there right next to you
I'm gon' be there right next to you
Drivin' next to you

It don't matter, babe
It don't matter
It don't matter what the sun gon' say, the moon gon' do
The moon gon' do
The moon gon' do
The moon gon' do
It don't matter if the sun don't shine and the moon don't glow
It don't matter how the Earth gon' move, but the world gon' be
I'm gon' be there right next to you
Right next to you
Be
I'm gon' be there right next to you
Right next to you
It don't matter if the sun don't shine and the moon don't glow
It don't matter how the Earth gon' move, but the world gon' be
I'm gon' be there right next to you, I'm
I'm gon' be right next to you

I'll stay with you
I'll stay waiting for my time
I'll stay waiting for my time to come
Whoa-oh, you, I'll stay waiting for my time to come
Oh, my time
Oh, my time
For my time to come
For my time to come
I'll stay waiting
Waiting
For my time to come
For my time to come
For my time to come, mm-mm
For my time to come, aye-yeah
I can feel it in my soul and my heart now
I can feel it in my soul and my heart now
I can feel it in my soul and my heart now
I can feel it in my soul and my heart now

Carry me higher
Carry me higher
Carry me higher
Carry me higher
Carry me higher
Carry me higher
Carry me higher
Carry me higher
I'll stay waiting

It don't matter if the sun don't shine and the moon don't glow
It don't matter how the Earth gon' move, but the world gon' be
I'm gon' be there right next to you
Right next to you

I'm gon' be there right next to you

Right next to you

It don't matter if the sun don't shine and the moon don't glow

It don't matter how the Earth gon' move, but the world gon' be

I'm gon' be there right next to you, drivin'

I'm gon' be right next to you
