

Nowhere Fast

The Blessed Madonna

```
Everybody looking like
Everybody looking
Everybody
Everybody looking
Everybody looking like
Everybody looking
Everybody
Everybody looking
```

Everybody looking like they wanna do something
Everybody looking like they wanna do something
Everybody looking, do something, but they
Everybody looking
Everybody looking like they wanna do something, but
Everybody
Everybody looking like they wanna do something, but they
Everybody looking like they wanna do something

Everybody looking like they wanna do something, but they never gon' make a change
Everybody looking like they wanna do something, but they never gon' make a change
Everybody looking like they wanna do something, but they never gon' make a change
Everybody looking like they wanna do something, but they never gon' make Bitch ass, I wish you would

Everybody looking like they wanna do something, but they never gon' make a change
Everybody quick when they wanna point the finger, but no one wanna take the blame
Even though I'm saying this I know I'm no better, in the end we're all the same
Everybody wanna take a sip of holy water, but they just can't stand the rain

[illegible]

Just can't stand the rain
Just can't stand the rain
Just can't stand the rain
Just can't stand the rain
Just can't stand the rain

The future's going nowhere fast
I know the future's going nowhere fast
The future's going nowhere fast
I know the future's going nowhere fast
The future's going nowhere fast
I know the future's going nowhere fast
The future's going nowhere fast
I know the future's going nowhere fast...
