

Lost Soul

The Bliss

He took my soul
In his hands
My mind got dark
In his hands
When did I begin
To follow the shadows?
They fill my dreams with pain
And sadness
When did I begin
To feel the sorrows?
Then I laid my soul
Into your hands
He said sweet words
With his voice
He seduced me softly
With his voice
When did I begin
To follow the shadows?
They fill my dreams with pain
And sadness
When did I begin
To feel the sorrows?
Then I laid my soul
Into your hands
He took my soul
In his hands
My mind got dark
In his hands
Once times were not so dark
But then the shadows took hold
Of my soul
Since then I feel
My mind's lost in madness
Lost my soul
In the dark
Lost my mind
In the dark
Lost my soul
In the dark
Lost my mind
In the dark
When did I begin
To follow the shadows?
They fill my dreams with pain
And sadness
When did I begin
To feel the sorrows?
Then I laid my soul
Into your hands
