

Wake the Tiger

The Blue Van

He told me when you leave we're gonna kick your ass, So you and your brothers better run real fast. You see I'm no match for his biker fist, And I can see on his face that he's really pissed.

If I'm lucky they'll leave And don't decide to kick the shit out of me I'm not a fighter, until you wake the tiger. Until you wake the tiger.

I try to sneak away, I try to hide, 'cause I'm quite certain I won't survive this fight. You see, I'm no match for his hungry blade, He seems to think I pissed off his date. Probably did.

If I'm lucky they'll leave And don't decide to kick the shit out of me I'm not a fighter, until you wake the tiger. Until you wake the tiger.

And when you'll leave we're gonna kick your ass, You and your friend better move here fast.

If I'm lucky they'll leave And don't decide to kick the shit out of me I'm not a fighter, until you wake the tiger. Until you wake the tiger. Until you wake the tiger. Until you wake the tiger.
