

I done put my heart in it
Could touch the stars with it
I'm ridin' 'round the city, with my hand low
Water in my bottle
When I drop my sorrow
All my nightmares follow
Don't wanna live here at all

Now now now, bitch you should've know
Pow pow pow, now yo ass on the floor
Bones soon will make it dark
I get out of any charge
I'm at large, going far
Take your life and take 'em all

I can see it in your eyes you just counterfeit
Fake racks, fake life, you so out of it
Wasn't fuckin' with me back in the drought and shit
Now we up and you actin' like you down and shit

I don't know, if I really want you
I had dreams where I'll be good without you
In my head I'm tryna find the route to
My escape
