

Wish that I could turn my brain to a blank slate
Erase every constant insecurity I face
I make up situations daily to escape
But inturn I just lock my inner peace in a safe
Pull my piece outta save, just in case it ain't safe
Outside is a human population I hate
Indoor, marble floors or granite, up for debate
Black Paisley, bandana, keep the hair out my face
They all down to be the winner, count me out of the race
Rather keep to my pace, kick raps no break
Pouring cups all night, roll blunts all day
I'm countin' down to the moment, that is safe to say

Everything will be okay, don't trip
Grateful, this an understatement, every breath is a gift
Everything will be okay, don't trip
Grateful, this an understatement, every breath is a gift
SESH

What?

Went from rapping in a hall, to plaques on the wall
Went from wanting my props, to not giving a fuck at all
They gon' love you in the winter, they gon' ditch you in the fall
You just gotta fall back, keep on with the keeping on
Went from legend in the making, to living out history
The way they chose to go about it never made sense to me
You look like mystery, tryna pick these bitches up
Doin' everything but rappin', expectin' to get your digits up
Green light, blunts yellow like cups
Slow-mo corner now my aimin' is heatin' up
Fingers crossed I don't suddenly start to lag
I'm goin' cat, life is like shift-walking into a flashbang

Shit will be okay, don't trip
Grateful, this an understatement, every breath is a gift
Shit will be okay, don't trip
But that ain't real life, that's just too much to wish
