

Do You Wanna...

The Bones

I\`ve spoiled the devil on my shoulder
Well I\`ve felt the vultures flying over my head
Well I\`ve been hit by a ton of bricks, oh yeah
I\`ve faced the empty dawn at the gates of hell

Blitzkrieg flames surrounds me
Trouble is looking for me
I fly the finger in the air
\`cause I just don\`t care

Well do you wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna come along
Do you wanna come along, soon it\`s all long gone
All souped up, it\`s partytime
Yeah, turn it up and leave it all behind
Do you wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna come along
Do you wanna come along, yeah it\`s all soon gone
Rip it up, it\`s partytime
Yeah, tear it down and leave it all behind

Another day yet another shot down
Yeah, wrong lane cruisers going down the drain
Well I\`m stumblin\` in the middle of a living dead crowd
My kingdom for a sixpack, I kneel and pray

Blitzkrieg flames surrounds me
I fly the finger in the air
Baby, I just don\`t care

Well do you wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna come along
Do you wanna come along, soon it\`s all long gone
All souped up, it\`s partytime
Yeah, turn it up and leave it all behind
Do you wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna come along
Do you wanna come along, yeah it\`s all soon gone
Rip it up, it\`s partytime
Yeah, tear it down and leave it all behind

Blitzkrieg flames surrounds me
Trouble is looking for me
My middle finger in the air
Baby, I just don\`t care

Well do you wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna come along
Do you wanna come along, soon it\`s all long gone
Yeah, all souped up, it\`s partytime
Yeah, turn it up and leave it all behind
Do you wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna come along
Do you wanna come along, yeah it\`s all soon gone
Rip it up, it\`s partytime
Yeah, tear it down and leave it all behind

Do you wanna, wanna, wanna, wanna come along
Do you wanna come along, \`til it\`s all long gone
Rip it up, it\`s partytime for me
