The Bones

I got hate staring at me through a peephole
Man down if you pull up with the evil
G1, let me shotgun in the evo
All for one, almighty, I'm a hero
I can care less about a boy and his ego
Man seen us flying higher than the eagles
And I'll do it all again like it's a sequel
I'm looking down as I'm walking through the people
I got hate staring at me through a peephole
Man down if you pull up with the evil
G1, let me shotgun in the evo
All for one, almighty, I'm a hero
I can care less about a boy and his ego
Man seen us flying higher than the eagles
And I'll do it all again like it's a sequel
I'm looking down as I'm walking through the people
I got hate staring at me through a peephole
Man down if you pull up with the evil
G1, let me shotgun in the evo
All for one, almighty, I'm a hero
I can care less about a boy and his ego
Man seen us flying higher than the eagles

And I'll do it all again like it's a sequel
I'm looking down as I'm walking through the people
I got hate staring at me through a peephole
Man down if you pull up with the evil

You were young and so was I
It was a summer, we will never forget
There was nights I was by your side
You said "Don't leave", I said "I ain't going nowhere"
I was always there, you were never there
I put my best foot forward
You can say you tried, you can go and cry
I will turn away for the very
Last time
You swore on everything you would change
Last time
You said you wouldn't hurt me, now my heart's in a cage
