

Monsters Prefer Blondes

The Bones

Well I picked my Baby up in my black, old Cadillac
I took her to the drive-in,
I knew that she liked that A horrorflick with zombies, nacked girls and bats It could have been a great night but she ain't coming back

Monsters prefer blondes
Easy girls with tiny brains,
chewing bubblegum
Monsters prefer blondes
Bimbos with humungus tits,
chewing bubblegum

The monster in the movie, the worst I've ever seen Looked around and saw us then it came outta the screen Crawled up to my Cadillac, howled and I was stunned Grabbed my girl and flew away then both of them were gone

Monsters prefer blondes
Easy girls with tiny brains,
chewing bubblegum
Monsters prefer blondes
Bimbos with humungus tits,
chewing bubblegum

I've seen it in the movies,
I've seen it on the screen
I've always thought it's just a story - a morbid fantasy I've read it in the comics and in the magazines
I've always thought,
it's just a story but now I know that it's for real

Monsters prefer blondes
Easy girls with tiny brains,
chewing bubblegum
Monsters prefer blondes
Bimbos with humungus tits,
chewing bubblegum

Monsters prefer blondes
Easy girls with tiny brains,
Monsters prefer blondes
Bimbos with humungus tits,

Now there is no one, now there is no one

I'm all by myself
Now I'm lonely, now I'm lonely
I'm all by myself
And now I'm lonely
Why didn't you give me... last caress
