

You know what I mean. That person is a genius, geniuses. It is given to you. So, it's not as though it was something that I had done. That's why I never say "I know" instead of "thank you", because if I will say "thank you", then I will be taking the credit for it. Instead, if I say "I know", then you might know that I might [?]

That was very nice. That was very nice. [?]

Tell me please, tricks in rows, standing in the wind
Tell me the greatest tricks in rows, say it to me
I don't want to go right now
I don't want to go right now
You will be there for me, though
Why would I wait on you?
Genius

Honey, come down
Honey, come down
Honey, come down

SESH (what)

Digging myself out the grave (grave)
Smoking, my vision is hazed (hazed)
Maggots and worms in my brain (brain)
Got to get out of this cage (cage)
Digging myself out the grave (grave)
Smoking, my vision is hazed (hazed)
Maggots and worms in my brain (brain)
Got to get out of this cage (cage)
Grief is one of those that people, people don't really understand. And I think that grief is a part of everybody's life, from what I've experienced. There's nobody who's spared an introduction to grief, or a relationship with grief. There's nothing wrong with you if you feel overwhelmed or overcome by it. I find that to be very common, and so to speak, normal.