

Too Many Miles

The Bones

Too many miles
Too many lonely nights
This is the way I live my life
A thousand thoughts
Too many cigarettes
I hate to be here all alone
Feeling lost without your hand on me
It\'s too bad that you\'re not here with me

I need to feel your heartbeat
I wanna hear you sing with me
Can\'t take my mind off of you
I hope you feel it too

A thousand drinks
Too many empty thoughts
Try to sleep - it\'s not for me
A thousand thoughts
Another lonely night
I hang my head down and I cry
I realize how much you mean to me
Coming home to hear you laugh with me

I need to feel your heartbeat
I wanna hear you sing with me
Can\'t take my mind off of you
I hope you feel it too

Too many miles
Too many lonely nights
Coming home to see your smile
Too many drinks
Yeah I\'m a wreck but it\'s still me!
