The Bones

SESH goldchain like the moon that glow
Diamonds on my blade, I do the blows
Going gets rough, I do you cold
I could change my name and get away from the coast
Matter how far in land I go
Matter how many times I deny that I'm Bones
I'll still be the Dead Man
Till I'm burnt in the ashes
Let me wipe off my face
Step into the world
Don't know what to expect
But I got a hunch, it's the worst

And a hundred [?]
Just give me the works
Greaf on the shirt
Planet Earth on my nerves

Oh, closing time, get home safely if you can
Oh, closing time, you are always on my mind

I hate to say it, I always do
Just to amuse me, whatever you do
I hurt myself but, it's nothing new
I thought someone [?] too, too

On and on
On and on...
