

I Ain't Got You

The BossHoss

I got a Eldorado Cadillac
Wit's a spare tire on the back
I got the charge account at Goldblatt
But I ain't got you
No I don't

I got a closet full of clothes
No matter where I go
Ring through my nose, keep the ring through my nose
But I ain't got you

I got a tavern and a liquor store
I hit the numbers, forty four
I got a mojo and don't you know
I'm all dressed up, with no place to go

I got a woman to the left of me
I got a woman to the right of me
I got womans all around me, yeah I do
But I ain't got you

But I ain't got you
No I don't
Baby I ain't got you
But I ain't got you
Tell me baby what I got to do
I can't live, I can't breathe, I can't exist without you

I got a mojo
Even got an Eldorado Cadillac
But baby
What I got to do to get you back

I got a tavern and a liquor store
I hit the numbers, four-forty four
I got a mojo and don't you know
I'm all dressed up, with no place to go

I got a classic and a pool
And a big hair ghoul
No matter who I fool
Said, I ain't got you

No I ain't got you
No no ain't got you
No I ain't got you
No I ain't got you
No I ain't got you
No I ain't got you
Said I ain't got you
No I ain't got you
No I ain't got you
Baby come back to me now
I need you baby
I-i need you baby
But I ain't got you

I got a tavern and a liquor store
I hit the numbers, four-forty four
I got a mojo and don't you know
I'm all dressed up, with no place to go
