

Still Crazy 'Bout Elvis

The BossHoss

I discovered the King at the age of 6
My daddy bought a tape at the supermarket
Listening to the songs, I tried to sing 'em.
Jumped on my bed and I sure did swing 'em.
I knew it with my heart and soul,
I wanna grow up with rock 'n' roll!
Hey, I'm a big fellow today
Ad I feel it in the same old way

I'm still crazy, crazy 'bout Elvis
Because he amazes me, he gives me the kicks,
I'm still crazy, about the way he sings,
And if I would be a girl, I'd marry him

He was a small town boy with a Tupelo smile
Hanging with the Beale Street rank and file
He rocked my soul with a rebel rhythm
Take me back to '57.
An original pioneer King of rock 'n' roll, had no fear.
I hear his voice on the radio
Jailhouse Rock, oh man - go cat go!

I'm still crazy, crazy 'bout Elvis
Because he amazes me, he gives me the kicks
I'm still crazy, about the way he sings
And if he would still be there, he'd be my teddy bear!

TCB my ABC, the no. 1 rule in rock 'n' roll school,
I'm All Shook Up and Love Me Tender
Hey, nearly made me doubt my gender
Now I know it with my heart and soul
Till I die, I'm gonna dig his rock 'n' roll
So this little song's for everyone
Who wants to sing along like

Crazy, crazy 'bout Elvis
Because he amazes me, he gives me the kicks
I'm still crazy, about the way he sings
You think I am kinda queer - baby, I don't care!

I'm still crazy, crazy 'bout Elvis
Because he amazes me, he gives me the kicks
I'm still crazy, about the way he sings
And if you think I am square - baby I don't care!
