

Win Win

The BossHoss

Too late, the story's been told and it's gone and passé
No more gambling, shoulda promised yesterday
Man, it took quite a while to make me understand
And I must admit, well, my wishes don't affect my hand
But I won't look back no more, I'm not gonna flop
I'll keep my eyes on the goal, next stop, the chop
I take the best of the two worlds that I'm playing
I'm catching up, though I lost, it's a win-win

Win-win, all in
For the glory, for the pain, for the real thing
Win-win, all in
First one but the last man standing
Win-win, all in
For the money, for the show, for the big dream
Win-win, all in
First here but the last one leaving

Come on, the road is clear, I'm gonna move up the gear
The deal is done and sealed, no regrets, no fear
Man, it took quite a while to make me understand
And I must admit, good and bad luck goes hand-in-hand
But I'll look forward, no, I'll not hesitate
I'll follow my nose, head up high, and battle my fate
I'll take the rest of my best dreams and put its all in
The game is on, though I lost, it's a win-win

Win-win, all in
For the glory, for the pain, for the real thing
Win-win, all in
First one but the last man standing
Win-win, all in
For the money, for the show, for the big dream
Win-win, all in
First here but the last one leaving

Hooray to a lucky life
The cashflow like a landslide
Hooray to the good times
Win-win for all sides

Win-win, all in
For the glory, for the pain, for the real thing
Win-win, all in
First one but the last man standing
Win-win, all in
For the money, for the show, for the big dream
Win-win, all in
First here but the last one leaving
Win-win, all in
For the money, for the show, for the big dream
Win-win, all in
First here but the last one leaving
