

You're a good kid
Play the game to break your heart
You've gotta get back to where you started
Pay attention now
Or it'll slip by
It's your heart, don't let it die
Leave it all behind
Whoa, catchy line

Is it true when we get old our hearts die?
I heard it in a movie once and I think I know why
Life, it sucks so bad, it makes you wanna die
Whoa, but you get by

Life goes by (3x)

You're a good kid, you've still got the fire in you
Hanging around, you don't know what to do
Don't think too much
Just let it loose
Get up, now's your chance
We are here and we make you dance
You are not alone, this is our home
