The Bouncing Souls

Sing a song of old school I don't really care where you were or who you know sing a song of old school we don't really care wh at you have to say about this show the music you love lost it's meaning because these people are not aware some people talk ot hers are listening sometimes I think I just don't care it's eas y to forget the choices we've made and the promises of the past but if we really listen to these old school ideals we'll find what's good and make it last sing a song of old school everyone knows but it seems we all forget the time we needed to see the se ideals for ourselves and what it meant I guess I'm on a soap box singing a hymn that you don't want to hear no sermon when I step down and look around all I see is separation find what's good and make it last
