The Boxer Rebellion

I am waiting in a world you don't want
Suffocating by an endless weak spot
Please know, up here my hands are tied up too from

All I can see makes it hard for me
The last one to say good son, one more day

You know I am here, but I am losing
Faith in what I see you celebrating
I know, up here, I'll be proven guilty

All I can see makes it hard for me
The last one to say good son, one more day

All I can see makes it hard for me
The last one to say good son, one more day
