

Square One

THE BOYZ

Staring at a canvas
Still in contemplation
Pretty colours handy
But to me, what's the use?
Constantly I'm restless
Where's the inspiration?
Things that once intrigued me
Slowly they're losing hue

They say where there's a will there is a way
They say there's gonna be no gain without the pain
Maybe, I just need to take some time alone
Remind myself

I've made it out this far
Won't there be new beginnings?
With this empty heart
Maybe I'll think back to square one

Square one

Suddenly I'm restless
Too many distractions
3 A.M, the night is so long
When will it end?
Needless interactions
Back and forth in my head
Wish I could just fall back
And take it step by step

They say when one door closes, don't be afraid
There'll be so many chances to make
I'll take a deep breath let myself say
I'm okay

I've made it out this far
What's to stop new beginnings?
With this empty heart
Maybe I'll think back to square one

The dreamer I was then
Is the same dreamer I am now (I am now)
Dim the lights to see the stars shine (Stars shine)
They've been there since square one

(Ooh) Square one
(Ooh) Square one
(Oh) Square one
(Oh) Square one
