Watch it
Mm, yeah, yeah, yeah

Coldly, yeah, the warning rang out
Silently, get down towards you
I'll give you, one, two, three, hold your breath
You better watch out, oh-oh
With the real feelings hidden
Exploring all night under shadow
Little by little, three, two, one, for the L-O-V-E
You'll be in danger, oh-oh

Explosive breath as if bursting (Alright)
Fragile mood (All night; But you love it right?)
Can't escape
In the deep darkness, low, low, low

Baby, I want you and hurt you
I can't go without you
I want to touch you like that, it's driving me crazy
I need you now
The tension rushing towards me
The more I try to escape
Unrestrained, too fast, swept away by the two-faced
My perfect frame, you

(You better) Watch it, careful, it's confusing
Can't refuse, my bad, pulling you closer
Slowly switch up, move it fast

Caught in my trap, it's already too late
Hey, oh my God (Baby, hear me out)
Try to break free (It's so critical)
The more dangerous, the more I fall deeper
You better watch it

Let me do what I do, wreck and mess things up
Come into come in true, I whisper more
Party just started
The more it may be harmful, the more I want it, yeah
Hi, hello
My name is what you want it to Whispering the desires I've hidden

Baby, I want you and hurt you
I can't go without you
I want to touch you like that, it's driving me crazy
I need you now
The tension rushing towards me
The more I try to escape
Unrestrained, too fast, swept away by the two-faced

Where you go, I'll go
Destroying you until the end
Without even knowing, I threw away the veil
I can't handle it, yeah
Baby, slowly falling
I can't stop wanting you uncontrollably

You better watch it, careful, it's confusing
Your pace is crumbling, your breath stops
Slowly switch up, move it fast
Caught in my trap, trapped by me
Hey, oh my God (Baby, hear me out)
Try to break free (It's so critical)
You would come find me again
You better watch it
