Fistful of Sand

The Bravery

Every morning I wake up and you are home But in your eyes I see that I'm alone You've left me with your body in my arms But I can't feel you anymore - You are gone

I can touch your skin but you aren't there Frustration burns in me, it's more than I can bear I wanna take you in my fists and squeeze the life back into you But there is nothing I can do - You are gone And I can hold you in my hands But you are gone, you are gone

You've slipped away like a fistful of sand You are gone, you are gone, you are gone

I am staring straight into your eyes You never turn away or tell me lies But you are with some other man while I am lying next to you And there is nothing I can do, you are gone
