

Hide and Seek

The Brian Jonestown Massacre

god only knows what i will do now that i found out he's with you laugh as my world turns grey i still can't find the words to say nobody loves you like i do you play hide and seek we play peek'a'boo
even i can see nothing good happens with you nobody knows that i love you it's a secret i keep to myself how i feel sometimes i think i'm invisible it's impossable and nothing else is even real we play hide and seek
something strange happened to you
