

King Of The Whole Damn World

The Brian Setzer Orchestra

Boys, I've got the sign
The pieces fit, the stars align
Now the plan's unfurled
We need a king
The king of the whole damn world

The punks on the street
They won't know what hit 'em
Their Italian suits man
They won't even fit 'em
We'll take 'em down hard
They won't know what hit 'em
They can't even find us
'Cause we just out hid 'em
I'm tellin' you man
If you're with 'em, best quit 'em
They can't compete
'Cause we'll just outwit 'em
It's good to be king
King of the whole damn world

He walks by, and people stare
He walks on air without a care
Listen up, just one more thing
This guy's for real
This guy's the king

We'll strike late at night
We won't stop 'til we found 'em
We'll hunt 'em like rats
We'll completely surround 'em
We'll chase 'em, we'll face 'em
We'll dog 'em, we'll hound 'em
We'll tighten the circle
'Til the rope is around 'em
A bullet I'll take
For the thrill and the cause
We're knockin' out windows
We're tearin' down doors
It's good to be king
King of the whole damn world

When you lead a life like this
You take the shots, you take the hits
Listen brother, I know one thing
It's good to be king
The king of the whole damn world
King of the whole damn world
The king of the whole damn world
King of the whole damn world
King of the whole damn world
The king of the whole damn world
I'm the king of the whole damn world
