

Passion Of The Night

The Brian Setzer Orchestra

Nighttime breaks and so does thy heart
It's beautifully broken in two
Darkness falls but the moonlight sparks
Longing and yearning for you
This is our story
Is this the glory of love?
It's hot and it's right
It's just the passion of the night

Spellbound hell-bound what do I care?
We all end up the fool
Chasing, facing the struggle ahead
A game without the rules
Is this our fight?
Just what are we searching for?
I'm ready to fight
For the passion of the night

So let it all crumble
Too late to be humble
As we stumble
Home in the dawn
Why are we running?
Let's both use our cunning
The two of us can't be so wrong

Sun shines in rather tentatively
As almost if to say
Sorry to burst your bubble my friend
Your blues are here to stay
I'll wait for the darkness
And think of the warmth of you

You know you can't fight
It's the passion of the night
