The Broadways

seems like another wasted day sometimes i think i think too much my heart just seems to run away i thought of you
f**k the whole world i just want to sit and cry tonite in the arms that make me happy i never thought a smile could change my life, my whole life what a pretty girl on such a cloudy day and i don't care about anything every night i make a wish that i'll see you tomorrow. usgar, i've never tasted anything so sweet never felt something so beautiful this ugly world needs more beauty like yours my star, my love
