

Fuck The Church

The Broadways

Galileo was a sinner
While Christopher Columbus was a saint
Stems from moral victories at least that's what you should believe
What a prestigious state I've made for blasphemers that never seem to...
Just last week the pope figured out
Said "evolution might not be a sin after all"
But people's thoughts on evolution say "the winning church shall stay"
But the pope's token gesture
Trust me much to little, much to late
When the cardinal lives in the big house with facing chimneys
And expansive lawns right on the lake
Well blast his house and shake my hands
Say things that don't seem right to me.
Somebody somewhere has made a big mistake
Cause I seem to recall
That Jesus was a communist
And shared everything and yearned to give
So what's the fucking deal with the no trespassing sign
A sign
Displayed for everyone to see
For everyone to see
For everyone to see
Seems to me this lawn would be nice to sleep on
Seems to me that Jesus would agree
Well i'm just a stupid kid who never goes to church
But Bernadine seems all fucked up to me
And if heaven loves my brother how can a holy man close
His door to the people most in need
Well i don't know
I don't know
Well i guess its just a theme in history
A theme in history
A theme in history
I choose to fucking not believe
I choose to fucking not believe
Jesus was a communist he thinks the same as me
I choose to fucking not believe
FUCK THE CHURCH and learn to be free
FUCK THE POPE and come to hell with me
Our father said we should "forgive those who trespass against us"
It seems to me this lawn would be nice to sleep on
Seems to me that Jesus would agree
It seems to me this lawn would be nice to sleep on
