

Black Night Crash

The Bronx

See the girls coughing, looking underfed
When they go to sleep, they dream of being dead
I saw you in the corner, with a butcher's knife
Your boyfriend running round, looking for a midwife

Everybody's got the same disease, and it's alright, it's alright
Everybody lives down on their knees, and it's alright, it's alright

Bumped into a hunchback abuser
He made a million working on a cruiser
Do what he want and he don't get caught
He's looking at the moon but I'm an astronaut

Everyone looks when they see a crash, and it's alright, it's alright
Cause everybody needs just a little cash, and it's alright, it's alright

Evening daybreak, suicide stomach ache
Gonna meet a man with a rattlesnake handshake
Walk around like I'm looking for an upgrade
Slipping through town like a penny in the arcade

Everyone has got the same disease, and it's alright, it's alright
Everybody lives down on their knees, and it's alright, it's alright
Everybody looks when they see a crash, and it's alright, it's alright
Everybody needs just a little cash, and it's alright, it's alright

It's alright, it's alright
It's alright, it's alright
