

Everything Twice

The Bronx

She was searching for the meaning of life
She tried everything twice
For a while

Now she's looking for someone to hold
Before the world gets too cold
To be alone

Is it right
Is it wrong
To feel like you don't belong
Should we go
Should we stay
It feels like we've lost our way

She was searching for the meaning of life
She tried everything twice
For a while

Now she's looking for someone to hold
Before the world gets too cold
To be alone

Is it right
Is it wrong
To feel like you don't belong
Should we go
Should we stay
It feels like we've lost our way
