

Hallways

The Brook & The Bluff

Running through the halls of the riding school -
Never thought our legs, that fast could move
Tell me we are headed home
Tell me where to go
Tell me "I love to hear your name when it's cold
'Cause my heart it warms."
My heart it warms

Running through the halls of the riding school -
Footsteps in your world opened more doors
Than I could for you
Tell me I am solid gold
Say you never lied when you spoke
Your body shivers when you're close
And I know, I've got you
On my tongue

Tell me "I love to hear your name when it's cold
'Cause my heart it warms"
My heart it warms
