

Headfirst

The Brook & The Bluff

I know you want it
It's not the first time
Thought you had it
It's not the last line
Picked up the pieces that had fell on the way
Long arms to gather what your hands couldn't take

Two sets of bones
Not loving alone

And I wanted to know you
And I wanted to show you what I'm talking about
All I have to say, there's no easy way out
It's just headfirst

All along, from the moment that we were on
I was drawn
A lighthouse out in the storm
Not loving alone

And I wanted to know you
And I wanted to show you what I'm talking about
All I have to say, there's no easy way out
It's just headfirst

Headfirst
Headfirst (I can't see why)
Headfirst (I can't see why)
(I can't see why)
Headfirst
(I can't see why)
