

Knock

The Brook & The Bluff

One of us here is in love
I can't pretend enough
Drag me out, call my bluff
I'm thinking about her

Just like a knock on my window
I want but dare wouldn't follow
Can't make no decisions (it's an alibi)
Drag my feet cause I limp (it's another life)
If I could start back anew
Just like a knock on my window

Summer love
For some of us
It was more than -
Ticket stubs
In the sun
Sweat on your skin

Just like a knock on my window
I want but dare wouldn't follow
Can't make no decisions (it's an alibi)
Drag my feet cause I limp (it's another life)
If I could start back anew
Just like a knock on my window
