

Wallflower

The Brook & The Bluff

I don't wanna be your best friend
It's kind hard when you see me as somebody else
I don't wanna be a sweet-talking wallflower
For an empty room, but

There's nothin' I can do
I don't wanna feel alone again
There's nothin' I can do
I don't wanna feel alone again

Never thought that this could happen
Always thought I'd be that one flower
Stuck on the shelf
I don't wanna be forgotten, forgotten and
I lost myself

There's nothin' I can do
I don't wanna feel alone again
There's nothin' I can do
I don't wanna feel alone again

(Flower on the shelf, I lost myself)

Wasn't once when I imagined
That I'd ever get to be next to somebody, I
Always thought I'd be that wallflower, oh now I
We'll twist our vines and see if we can
Make somebody else
Twist our vines and see if we can
Make somebody else

There's nothing I can do
(Always thought I'd be a wallflower, wallflower)
There's nothing I can do
(I don't wanna be your best friend)
There's nothing I can do
I don't wanna feel alone again
(Twist our vines and see if we)
I don't wanna feel alone again
