

Modern Day Sinners

The Brothers Comatose

Your cup is runnin' over
But you cry about the spill
You shout for more and more
When you've already had your fill

There to help run up the tab
But not to pay the bill
You say you'll change
But I know you never will

Say you'll change, but I know you never will

OohOoohoh
OohOoohoh
OoohOooohoh

Swallow your excuses
They've already been said
We won't waste a bandage
On one who's never bled

Quit your cry for sympathy
Not a tear will be shed
It's made now
Sleep in your bed

It's made now, sleep in your bed

OohOoohoh
OohOoohoh
OoohOooohoh

Every good deed you've done
Is drownin' in your pride
And all your wise and sage advice
Is strangled in your lies

You and you created
The walls you live behind
They'll crumble down to dust
When you die

They'll crumble down to dust when you die

OohOoohoh
OohOoohoh
OoohOooohoh
