

She's A Hurricane

The Brothers Comatose

Well she rolled in like a tropical storm
Waves grew high and the water got warm
Clouds began to cover the sun
She's raisin' a ruckus just for fun

I looked around and saw everybody runnin'
Better find shelter there's a storm a-comin'
Found myself in a mess again
But I like a little trouble every now and then

Well she's a hurricane
And she tore the place apart
Well she's a hurricane
And she's breakin' everybody's heart

No, nothin's gonna be the same
Since she rolled through that day
Yeah, she's a hurricane
And I don't mind

Well the wind it sang and sounded so sweet
Nearly blew me off of my feet
She smiled at me and asked me to stay
That storm picked me up and carried me away

Well she's a hurricane
And she tore the place apart
Well she's a hurricane
And she's breakin' everybody's heart

No, nothin's gonna be the same
Since she rolled through that day
Yeah she's a hurricane
And I don't mind

Well the rain came down so hard and so fast
Soon I forgot my troubles passed
Now I know I'll never be the same
Since I weathered that hurricane

Well she's a hurricane
And she tore the place apart
Well she's a hurricane
And she's breakin' everybody's heart

No, nothin's gonna be the same
Since she rolled through that day
Yeah she's a hurricane
And I don't mind

Well she's a hurricane
And I don't mind

Well she's a hurricane
And she's all mine
