Strings

The Brothers Comatose

Know you wouldn't love me if you took my strings away
(Know you wouldn't love me if you took my strings away)
Nothin' I could ever do and nothin' I could say (say) (say)
Could ever make you love me if you took my strings away

Know you wouldn't love me if I wasn't on the road
(Know you wouldn't love me if I wasn't on the road)
Some folks are for Satan and some for heaven [?] I've been told (told) (told)
And I know you wouldn't love me if I wasn't on the road

Know you wouldn't love me if I didn't sing these songs
(Know you wouldn't love me if I didn't sing these songs)
Everything'd be different, baby [?], it would be all wrong (wrong) (wrong)
And I know you wouldn't love me if I didn't sing these songs

Know you wouldn't love me if you didn't understand
(Know you wouldn't love me if you didn't understand)
Take away the music, and you take away the man (man) (man)
And I know you wouldn't love me if you didn't understand

Know I couldn't love no one if it wasn't you
Know I couldn't love no one if it wasn't you
You know I'd be a ramblin' man
You know what? I'll be true
And you know I couldn't love no one if it wasn't you
