

Anticendency

The Browning

There's a calling
Our souls to defend
Life devolving
Have we reached the end

We have fallen
Helpless entropy
Darkness calling
What's our destiny

Hatred breeding
Overwhelmingly
Hope is fleeting
Anticendency

I know there's nowhere to fall
We watched it all tear apart

We have our backs against the wall
Eternal wrath
Face to face with your cabal
At the edge we start to fall into oblivion
Into oblivion

We have fallen
Helpless entropy
Darkness calling
What's our destiny

Hatred breeding
Overwhelmingly
Hope is fleeting
Anticendency

I know there's nowhere to fall
We watched it all tear apart

There's a calling
Our souls to defend
Life devolving
Have we reached the end
