

Forgotten

The Browning

All men fall
Some can not stand at all
Because in your eyes
Life goes away
All men die

All men fall
I know you will stand tall
Because in my eyes
Life always lies
No man dies

Your tears, your blood
Rise above the flood
Your tears, your blood
Rise above the flood

Your tears, your blood
Rise above the flood
Your tears, your blood
Rise above the flood

In my eyes
Legends never die
Never forgotten
Legends never die

You gave everything
So you can have it all

You can do anything
You will never fall
You gave everything
So you can have it all

I will not forget
No man dies
I will not forget
No man dies
