

Hellblade

The Browning

Fall (into the darkness)
Into the darkness

The drowned, the sick, and the wicked
Here the dead do not always lie still
The lies, regrets, and the sacred
Walk the path, you've been damned to hell

Damned to hell
Internal war with the gods

Bravery means something to the ones afraid of death
But what is fear when you've been swallowed by the depths
Exile is bliss when you do not have a home
Fake emotions connected through blood and bones
Nothing to go back to and the worst has yet to come

Fall (into the darkness)
Into the darkness

The ground, the sky, and the precious
Here the futures dead nothing but existence
The blame, the hate, and the vicious
Darkness consumes this world, consumes my soul

Here the futures dead nothing but existence
The blame, the hate, and the vicious
Darkness consumes this world, consumes my soul
