Not Alone

The Browning

We are not alone
Our fate is unknown
We are not alone
There is so much we do not know

We approach the event horizon
Ripped away with no defense
Everything destroyed by violence

Constantly created
Constantly destroyed
Constantly created
Constantly destroyed

(Darkness consumes all light)
Oh

Darkness consumes all light
Darkness consumes all light

We are not alone
Our fate is unknown
We are not alone
There is so much we do not know

Exploding into nothingness
Only the void exists

Constantly created
Constantly destroyed
Constantly created
Constantly destroyed

I will leave this world behind
In search of a new beginning
I will leave this world behind
In search of a new beginning
I will leave this world behind
